ALEXANDRA AS REGENT

King's Mother to Rule While He Is Visiting India.

Queen Alexandra, according to the latest sports from London, is to act as Regent ing the absence of the King and of the en in India next fall and winter. The puke of Connaught is arriving in Canada to assume his office of Governor General in Reptember, and it has been found both imoffice and inadvisable for him to return mly a few weeks after taking up his duties Ottawa to assume the regency during the three months' absence of the King. In intrusting the regency to Queen Alex-ardra, rather than to his cousin, Prince arthur of Connaught, who is too young. and who would be placed in the always swkward position of outranking his own ther, the King is, after all, acting in acordance with precedent. The precedent that applies to this particular case is the regency bill of 1765, when the persons de ciared by Parliament to be entitled to the regency, in the event of the demise or in empetence of the Crown, during the minority of the then heir to the throne, were defired as, first of all, Queen Charlotte, and then the Princess Dowager of Wales, mother of George III.

Were George V going to India alone, the regency would, according to the terms of by law in Queen Mary. But since she is Alexandra, as the sovereign's mother, will take his place during his absence and be eme acting ruler of every part of the Brit- ship. ish Empire, even to the extent of signing thile George, the Emperor of that country, 10 holding his durbar there.

Only Ruler with Morganatic Wife. The octogenarian Duke George II of Sexe-Meiningen enjoys the distinction of who has a morganatic consort. Things were different in the nineteenth century, when many of his brother rulers were morgenetically allied to women who were de harred by the inferiority of their birth from sharing their husband's throne or Thus, there were Emperor Alexander II of Russia, whose widow, Catherine Dolgorouka, now Princess Yourieffka, is still alive; King Frederick William 111 of Prussia, whose left-handed consort, Countess Harrach, had been created by him Princess Liegnitz; King Victor Emmanuel II of Italy, who was married to a cellans, whom he created Countess Mirafort; King Frederick VII of Denmark. whose ex-modiste wife, Louise Rasmussen, feled as Countess Danner, and King William I of the Netherlands, who married morganatically Countess Henriette d'Oultremont, belonging to one of the greatest houses of the Belgian aristocracy.

The Duke of Saxe-Meiningen, now eightyfive years old, has been three times married. His first wife was Princess Charlotte Prussia, by whom he had a son, Prince Bernard, field marshal of the Prussian army, and married to the Kaiser's eldest sister. His second wife, whom he married in 1858, was Princess Feeder of Hohenlohe, favorite niece of Queen Victoria, being a daughter of the latter's half-sister. Thirteen months after her death he married morganatically an actress of the celebrated whom he created, on the occasion of his wedding, Baroness Heldburg.

The ceremony took place in the little illage church of Schweina, and on receivthe aristocracy holding office at the ourt of Saxe-Meiningen resigned, while the leading members of society in the little -horse capital of Meiningen ostentato turn their backs upo

Still more ridiculous was the attitude of the stout colonel of the Prussian regiment of infantry stationed at Meiningen. For, in order to escape having to salute her even by touching his cap, as he had been accustomed to do while she was still on the stage, he on one memorable occasion sought to hide himself behind a tree; and as the latter was spare and he himself was fat, he presented a singularly comical appearance. On the following day the duke sent his A. D. C. to Berlin to complain to old Emperor William, who at once gave directions that all officers should salute the baroness with the hand to the cap, and punished the colonel by placing him on the retired list of the army.

The baroness has been accorded by her husband official precedence before all hot of princely rank, and as such has the pas" of countesses, no matter how blueblooded their ancestry. The duke, moreover, insists that every one visiting his night's performance at St. Thomas's court should accord to the baroness the Church, Brooklyn. respect and courtesy due to his wife, rethat so few of the reigning houses visit the interlocutor. The hit of the minstrel part was a song, "Way Down in Georgia," state of the German Empire which the by the four end men-Moore, '13; Hall, '13; a cession to the throne the marriage of the old duke has been a (Cornell), J. F. Kelley, jr. (Cornell), James very happy one, and that although he has close upon forty years, they are still a very united couple.

American Flag O'er Drummond Castle.

Drummond Castle, in Perthshire, which has just been leased by Lord Ancaster, and by his American wife, formerly Miss Eloise Vaudeville Managers, However, Plan of Boston, who is flying the American No $50,000,000 Combination, 'Tis Said. flag from its loftiest tower, is one of the It lies about three miles southwest of Hungary, came to Scotland with Prince fort to defeat the aims of the White Rats Edward Atheling, of England, when he fled from the latter country, after the Hastings. of all being Lady Margaret Drummond, join them. The White Rats are expected consort of James IV, who was poisoned at to strike at that time. Prummond Castle, along with her two sisters, to enable her husband to marry eye of the, to him so fateful, battle of let. Culloden, and in 1745 the widow of the fifth Earl of Perth (her husband's title of current New York season. II, at St. Germain, never having been GEORGIA SOCIETY HONORS TAFT. by a bookseller in 1807 for £3, and $1,500 for recognized by the English government). The Georgia Society at its annual meet- one of the "Horse," printed at Paris in 1541. ating in Scotland against the Pretender.

The castle, however, was completely rehave as a general ground plan the design a member of the society last night.

of the Scottish flag. Marking the centre is an immense multiplex sundial, constructed in 1630, and which, having no less than fifty faces, indicates the life of the li fifty faces, indicates the time of day in very direction

Queen Victoria was there in 1842, and recording in her diary the visit expresses her admiration for a superb gold ewer, with basin of the same metal, three feet in diameter, dating from the time of that Lady Arabella Drummond who married Robert III of Scotland and became mother of Scotland's poet King, James III, whose authorship of the famous love story in verse "The King's Quhair" is now universally accepted by scholars. Drummond Castle passed from the Drummonds into the possession of the Berties, of whom Lord Ancaster is the chief, through the marriage of the twenty-first Lord Willoughby of Eresby and second Lord Gwydyr with the Lady Clementina Sarah, daughter and sole heiress of James Drummond, Earl of Perth. The twenty-fourth Lord Willoughby of Eresby was created Earl of Ancaster some eighteen years ago by the late Queen Victoria, and the present Lord Ancaster is his MARQUSE DE FONTENOY.

PRINCETON TO GET PRESS Charles Scribner to Build a Plant to Aid University. Princeton, N. J., April 28 (Special) .harles Scribner, of New York, has given the money for the erection of a large building in Princeton to be used for a Princeton the regency bill of last summer, be vested University press. Mr. Scribner's idea is to create a press which will be votally conaccompanying her consort to India, Queen nected with Princeton University, and have for its purpose not pecuniary profit, but the promotion of education and scholar-Although the gift was not made directly to Princeton, nor will the university the acts of Parliament relating to India, trustees have any control over the press, it is regarded by prominent men in the faculty and trustees as a most important

The new press will include what was formerly the Princeton Press, of which Mr. Scribner was president. It was the aim of the text, which went to Mr. Smith for being the only reigning sovereign to-day this old organization to be of as much service to the university as possible, and it was started as more or less of an experiment, to see how great the need of such an organization in Princeton was.

Mr. Scribner, as president; M. Taylor Pyne, as vice-president, and G. W. Bur-New York dealer, paid $1,550. leigh, as secretary, carried it through the experimental stage until they were satisfied that it was of proved usefulness to the university.

They then reincorporated as the Princewhich provides for incorporating "associations not for pecuniary profit," and Mr. Piedmonters peasant woman, Rosina Ver- Scribner contributed the new building, which, it is said, will cost in the neighborhood of $150,000.

The architect for the new building is Ernest Flagg. The style will be in keeping with all the newer buildings of the university and the proposed graduate college.

ALUMNÆ HOLD CELEBRATION

Brooklyn Heights Seminary Entertains on Sixtieth Anniversary.

The Brooklyn Heights Seminary celebrated its sixtieth anniversary yesterday afternoon by an entertainment at the Academy of Music. The proceeds will be used for the seminary. The alumnæ were in charge. A large crowd was present. The programme began with an overture

Saxe-Meiningen court theatre, Helen Franz. by Royal Stone Smith. Next came a dance pantomime, entitled "Pandora." The principal characters were the Misses Eleanor Tyler, Jean Murry, Louise Ruxton, Antoinette Butler and Eunice Beecher. They been exceeded by only one other afternoon ing the notification thereof all the members were supported by a chorus of sixty or session, that of last Tuesday, when more seventy young women representing Greek than $71,000 poured into the treasury. The characters.

Next came a dance interpretation of April acters were the Misses Heler Denny, Marian Brown, Adelaide Moffat, D. Smith contributed $11,375, carrying off Marie Dorsey, Helen Halsted, Lois Smith seventeen of the twenty-four volumes. and Cecelia Brewster. There was also a chorus of winds, sunbeams, rain and icicles The pantomimes were arranged and directed by Miss Marie J. Warren and the music was composed by Mr. Smith. The stage director was Emil Koch. Music was furnished by the Brooklyn Philharmonic Orchestra.

N. Y. U. MINSTREL SHOW

Campus Sees Senior Entertainment Upon Its Second Performance.

New York University's substitute for what has been the annual musical comedy wemen at the court of Meiningen who are a minstrel show, was put on last night at University Heights before a crowded house. The programme opened with a prologue by Thomas J. Crawford, '12, as in Tuesday

The minstrel chorus sang "Dixle," which gardless of the question whether she is or as the curtain rose changed into a parody is not of royal birth. It is owing to this on "Bring Me a Rose." Cooney, '11, was tresent Kaiser has never visited since his Judd, '11, and Bouillon, ex-'12. A double quartet, composed of members of the Uni Princess Charlotte of Prussia, the wife of versity Glee Club of New York. Crown Prince of Saxe-Meiningen, a made the big hit of the evening, sang sevsingularly witty, sensible and charming eral college songs and rendered the novel woman, gets on capitally, however, with feature with a "medley," composed of most her father-in-law's morganatic wife and of the popular song hits of the year. The is frequently at Meiningen. I may add that double quartet was Roger G. Holloway Jenkins, jr. (Michigan), Charles Burns (Corbeen wedded to Baroness Heldburg for nell), W. D. White (Pennsylvania), George F. Lewis (Cornell), Cyrille Carreau, jr. (New York), and Vincent Roberts (New York).

WILL FIGHT ACTORS' UNION

most picturesque and interesting places in Vaudeville Managers' Protective Associa-Scotland, replete with historic memories. tion, denied yesterday that a $50,000,000 of Mr. Morgan. But only four of them combination of vaudeville managers was reif, and the castle gates are reached even a possibility. He said, however, that Smith. It cost Mr. Quaritch $4.500 to obthrough grand old avenues of trees which the members of the organization, which inare without equal in the United Kingdom. cludes such men as Percy Williams, B. F. la vierge Marie," printed at Paris in 1525 the oldest part of the castle dates from Keith, F. F. Proctor, the Hammersteins, for Maistre Geoffroy Tory de Bourges, the 1491, when it was built by the first Lord Martin Beck, Sam Scribner and most of the filumination executed for François Trummond, a nobleman whose ancestors other important vaudeville managers of Balzac, Chevaller de St. Esprit in 1578 and descended from the ancient kings of the country, desired to co-operate in an ef-of America. death of King Harold, at the battle of sires to make of the actor a labor union price, however. He had bought the book man. They have issued, he said, a statement that they will take in as members he said, and it had passed to Mr. three queens to Scotland, the best known up to June 19 all actors who may care to through another hand for about f1,200. The

MR. MANTELL IN "OTHELLO."

Frincess Margaret, of England, sister of "Othello" was the bill at Daly's last King Henry VIII. Mary Queen of Scots night, and Mr. Mantell made his first ap- high priced works during the afternoon-an was a frequent visitor to Drummond Castle, pearance during the present engagement in and her son, James I, and her grandson, the role of the Moor of Venice. Marie Florence in 1488, for which he paid $3,800 Charles I, of England, often stayed there. Booth Russell was the Desdemona, Fritz and three volumes on English discoveries In the days of Cromwell the castle re- Lieber was lago, Guy Lindsley played Cas- by Richard Hakluyt, printed in London in ceived some rough treatment, and again slo, Casson Ferguson was the Roderigo and 1800, which cost him $3,400. Mr. Hoe bought In 1888, the castle was partially demolished. Agnes Elliot Scott was the Emilia. This this latter book at the Brayton Ives sale, The Young Pretender slept there on the afternoon Mr. Mantell will be seen as Ham- in 1891, for $225. To-night Mr. Mantell will present "Richard III" for the first time during the razed a portion of the walls, to prevent the ing last night made President Taft an castle being used as a fortress by the honorary member. The society has no proinflitary forces of King George, then oper- vision for honorary members, but the president, James F. Allen, said that Mr. Taft was made a member by "special dispensation," in recognition of the appointand is still surrounded by the world-famed ment of Joseph R. Lamar to the Supreme General Grant, to Hart Purdy, a wealthy gardens, which were already celebrated as Court. He is the first Georgian to be so far back as the reign of Charles II, and honored. Justice Lamar was also elected

"Helyas, Knight of the Swanne," Brings $21,000 in Afternoon.

IRVING ORIGINALS POPULAR

Lively Bidding for Works of American Author Sends Prices Soaring.

With a total of $111.854 in bids for the two sessions, yesterday took third place among the days in the sale of the Robert Hoe library, which started last Monday afternoon at the Anderson Auction Rooms, Madison avenue and 40th street. Counting only the number of books selling for $1,000 or more, yesterday was second, with eighteen books, as against Tuesday with twenty-three. The grand total taken in to date on the 1.947 lots disposed of is $462,-The bids of one man have made up more than half this figure. George D. Smith's indebtedness to the auction stood last night at $276,220 50. He is doing most of his bidding for H. E. Huntington.

There was rivalry last night among the bidders to see who could carry away the greatest number of works by a single au thor. Washington Irving offered the best opportunity, being down for twenty-seven different items on the catalogue, His works, however, were widely scattered, and could only claim the distinction of bringing the highest price of the evening, paid by G. S. Hellman, a dealer, of this city, for the original manuscript of "The Life of Oliver Goldsmith," bound in brown morocco. The amount was $4,250.

factor for the promotion of the university's than $1,600, the original manuscript copy used for the revised edition of the "History of New York," containing more than 250 closely written pages inserted opposite $3,000; the original manuscript copy of that portion of "The Life of Washington" re lating to the treason of Arnold, which also went to Mr. Smith for the sum of $2,800; and the author's revised edition of "The Sketch Book," for which E. D. North, a

Mr. Smith, nevertheless, forged to the front in this little game of capturing complete sets by carrying away the six lots of King James I which were offered and the eleven lots of Ben Jonson. For the first ton University Press, under the act of 1898. of these he paid a total of $1.840, being forced by the bids of Dodd & Livingston to offer $1,035 for a single volume, a first edition of "The Essayes of a Prentise in the Divine Art of Poesie." The other set commanded his purse to the extent of $11,065, four of the eleven leaving the $1,000 mark behind. The highest of these, which was also the second highest price of the evenfolio edition of Jonson's collected works, known as Jonson's own edition. Mr. Hoe obtained the two volumes for $1,000 in 1890 from Dodd, Mead & Co. and expended 3,990 francs in having them rebound by Cuzin.

With the end of the evening session the sale was adjourned until Monday afternoon. Next week's session will run until Friday, when a vacation will be taken until next fall. After that there will be two more sessions before the libray is wholly disposed of.

Heavy Afternoon Sale.

The afternoon session was marked by more than one interesting incident. Not only was the second highest price of the sale reached, but the total of $66,866 50 has bidding for the twenty-four illuminated "Horæ," the collection of which was one by Marie J. Warren. The concluding num- of Robert Hoe's particular hobbies, was ex-

> Mr. Smith, however, was beaten in the race for the prize book of the afternoon "Helyas, Knight of the Swanne," is the title of this little volume, and in it ap- troops. pears the first English version of the legend of Lohengrin. It was printed by Wynkyn de Worde in London in 1512, is Wynkyn de Worde's press, and is said to average. he the only book printed by him on vellum. It bears the name of Edward Gwynne, a book collector of the early seventeenth century, stamped in gold on the cover, and a book plate of Sir Pau Methuen, who lived in the later part of the same century, on the inside. Mr. Hoe bought it from Bernard Quaritch, of Lon-Mr. Quaritch had acquired it at the Hope Edwards sale, in 1992, for a little more than £400. Walter M. Hill, of Chicago, who had pressed Mr. Smith closely on several other ccasions, won the right to it with a bid of bid of $500 when the auctioneer first announced its appearance. Immediately he Green, J. P. Morgan's librarian. Then the

Dr. A. S. W. Rosenbach, of the Phila delphia Company, was the next one to enter the arena, but both he and Miss Green gult when Mr. Hill and Mr. Smith reached $10,000, and began to raise each other in tumps of $250 and $500. Finally Mr. Smith shook his head when the auctioneer suggested that he "make it $22,000," The volume went to Mr. Hill for what is said o he the third highest price ever paid for book. For the first time since the Gutenberg Bible was sold, on the first night, there was applause as the hammer fell.

Many Bidders for "Horae."

Nearly all those who had earned th reputation of bidders during the sale tried to secure one or another of the "Horse." Maurice Goodman, counsel for the Miss Green in particular made several atwere able to outbid the energetic Mr. coat of arms and the Balzac shield being painted in colors and gold on the fly leaf. This latter society of actors, he said, de- Mr. Quaritch held this to be a moderate at the Ashburnham sale in London in 1898, others who secured "Horæ" were Arthur Hoe, Miss T. Benson, a granddaughter of Robert Hoe, and J. F. Drake, a New York dealer.

Mr. Hill was the purchaser of two other

Two other notable purchases were Mr. Smith. He paid $2,000 for one of the few copies of George Herbert's "Poems." privately printed as gifts, which was sold

MISS FANNIE GRANT TO WED.

(By Telegraph to The Tribune.) San Diego, Cal., April 28.-The engage ment of Miss Fannie Grant, daughter of U. S. Grant, ir., and granddaughter o was announced at a dinner party here to-

ANGLO-RUSSIAN WEDDING Hon. Jasper Ridley Weds Daughter of Russian Ambassador. [By Cable to The Tribune.] London, April 28.-The first prominent Anglo-Russian wedding in a long period took place to-day with two services, a private one in the embassy church, with the Greek ritual, and the other in St. Margaret's, Westminster, with a large assembly of fashionable people present. This was the marriage of the Hon. Jasper Ridley, brother of Viscount Ridley, and Countess Nathalie Benckendorff, daughter of the Russian Ambassa-

There were five bridesmaids, in delicate pink, and two train bearers, in green velvet. Izvoliky, the Russian statesman, was among the wedding guests. There was a brilliant display of wedding presents at the Russian Embassy. including jewels from King George and Queen Mary, Queen Alexandra and the Dowager Empress of Russia, and gifts from leading members of the diplomatic

ROYAL ACADEMY VIEW

Young American Sculptor Shows "Dance of Life."

[By Cable to The Tribune.] London, April 28.-There was a large assemblage at the private view of the Royal Academy to-day. Sir George Frampton's statue of "Peter Pan," for the Kensington Gardens, was the most popular piece of sculpture, although there were full length statues of the King and Queen and a half-dozen busts of King Edward.

A young American sculptor, Mrs. Lester Ralph, was one of the exhibitors, with a large bronze relief entitled "The Dance of Life," having a group of six figures, among grapes and fruit.

John S. Sargent's large panel. "Ar mageddon," for the Boston Public Library, and a portrait of the Archbishop of Canterbury were among the most conspicuous paintings.

SALON LACKS DISTINCTION Works of American Artists Far

Above General Average. Paris, April 28.-The 129th salon of the Society of French Artists opened to-day. In the opinion of critics, the exhibition has little to distinguish it from those of preceding years, the principal characteristics being the decreased size of the canvases and the absence of nudes. The whole is markedly conservative in technique and lacks the distinctive work of Henri Martin and Paul Chavas.

The contributions of the American art ists, H. O. Turner, Robert MacCameron and Walter MacEwan, are notable.

The principal works shown is Fernand Corton's series of decorations for the Petit Palais in the Champs Elysées, representing a synthetic vision of the history of Paris and which, while being a remarkable achievement, does not equal the artist's best work in this style of picture.

A big canvas by Jules Grun, entitled Friday at the Salon," comprises 104 por traits of Parisian celebrities, cleverly grouped and painted with great verve and Jean Paul Laurens's "Spanish Inquisi-

ion" shows a grewsome subject treated in masterly style. Good portraits are shown by the English

Jan Styka, the friend of Leo Tolstoy contributes an impressive picture of the in the costume of a peasant, plodding through a bleak and endless expanse of

Georges Scott has a big military portrait of King George V, mounted, reviewing the

The American works appear in greater force this year than ever before, numbering more than one hundred and fifty. On Lionel Walden's "Moonlit Sea" is one the best pictures of the exhibition, and has a prominent place in the principal room. H. I. Hubbell has a good portrait of ex President L. Clark Seelye of Smith College; P. C. Dougherty and George Ricknell, excellent winter scenes; H. M. Hartshorne, large canvas, "Breton Fête," harmonious quise Wentworth, a good portrait of President Taft.

Among the other exhibitors are Max Smith gave up. He was on hand with a Barthold Landeau, Oscar Miller, Lawton Anna E. Klumpke.

The sculpture exhibit is on a smaller scale than usual and contains nothing conspicuous. Roger Bloche shows an aviator dying in the wreck of his machine-a work monument to the fallen heroes of aviation A prominent place is given to Cyrus Edwin Dallen's impressive bronze, "The Prayer of the Redskin to 'Manitou," which selongs to the city of Boston.

Other exhibitors are A. F. Billotti, J Boyle, R. E. Brooks, W. H. Diederich and Mmes, Curtis, Huxley, Daggett and Ed-

HELEN CULVER MEDAL AWARDED. culver gold medal, conferred by the Geographic Society of Chicago for extraordi nary scientific attainments, was awarded last night to Sir John Murray, K. C. B. F. R. S., a noted oceanographer. Sir John, in a speech before the society, offered to contribute $10,000 should reciprocal the United States should begin a joint study of the Great Lakes.

THE CORONATION EMBASSY. Washington, April 28.-Earl Dodge, of dent is considering for secretary of the spe-

WHAT IS GOING ON TO-DAY. Free admission to the American Museum Natural History and the Zoological Ga

Luncheon of the Elmira College Club of New York City, Hotel Plaza, 1 p. m. Meeting of the Woman's Press Club, Waldorf-Astoria, 2 p. m.

Dinner of the Interborough Association of Women Teachers, Waldorf-Astoria, 6 p. m Dinner of the Lotus Club for Count von Bernstorff, Geignan Ambassador, clubhouse,

Reunion and dinner of the 10th Regiment
New York Volunteers (National Zouaves), the Imperial, Red Hook Lane and Fulton street, Brooklyn, 7 p. m.
Dinner of the Montauk Club for Chauncey M.
Depaw, ex-Senator, clubhouse, Eighth avenue and Lincoin Place, Brooklyn, Grand Rapids, Mich., April 28—He

Dinner of the Manhattan Club for James A

Dinner of the Manhattan Club for James A. O'Gorman, Senator.

Free lectures of the Board of Education, 8 p. m.: Public School 184, 116th street, west of Fifth avenue, "Irrigation," Dr. J. Russell Smith; Museum, 77th street and Central Fark West, "Hawati," Professor William Libbey, of Princeton; Cooper Institute, Third avenue and 8th street, "Phasse of Education," Dr. Charles W. Ellot, president emeritus of Haivard, Library, No. 121 East 58th street, "The Making of a Statue," J. Scott Hartley, Library, No. 505 West 145th street, "Growth Through Expansion," Dr. Edward 5libott, St. Bartholomew's Hall, No. 205 East 42d street, "Electricity and Mat-

THE MAYOR-Who let that cat out of the grand jury room? THE DISTRICT ATTORNEY-It was never in there.

OBITUARY.

THE REV. WM. ST. ELMO SMITH. After an illness of less than a week, the Rev. William St. Elmo Smith, the first cran corps of that regiment. Mr. Carey's Catholic chaplain attached to the Fire interest in educational matters found rec-Department, died yesterday afternoon in the French Hospital, in West 34th street. Father Smith was attached to St. Vincent de Paul's Church, West 23d street. A week ago he complained of being ill and went from his home, No. 120 West 24th street, to the hospital.

On March 28, 1809, Father Smith was appointed chaplain in the department. He ranked as a battalion chief, and attended every large fire in the last ten years. He was popular with the firemen, whom he academicians Arthur S. Cope and J. H. often encouraged at their work and administered the rites of the Church when

The funeral will be held on Monday from number of men, eighty firemen, will attend the funeral in a body and act as an escort.

GEORGE HALE MORGAN.

[By Telegraph to The Tribune.] Lenox, Mass., April 28.-George Hale Mor. brief illness. He was sixty years old. gan, who seventeen years ago built Ventfort Hall, a villa of English manor type. the only known copy of this production of the whole, they are far above the general the most costly estate in Lenox, died at his country place this afternoon. He had pioneer lumbermen of the northwestern been ill for four years and had spent the section of the state, and for a number of last two years at Ventfort Hall, where he | years was connected with the First Naretired when his condition forbade further tional Bank of Olean, being a director and travel, of which he was fond.

Mr. Morgan was of the Hartford, Conn. branch of the Morgan family of financiers. He was born there on February 17, 1840, son of George Dennison and Cornella (Hale) don, for something under too shortly after and sincere in treatment; Richard Miller, Morgan. He was educated at Trinity Colunusually clever color studies, and Mar- lege and entered the business of banking and was at one time a member of a banking firm in New York. He married cousin, Miss Sarah Spencer Morgan, sister Bohm, Frank Boggs, Cheney Russell, C. W. o. J. Pierpont Morgan, who died in 1896 at Eaton, F. A. Bridgman, E. B. Fulde, F. G. Ventfort Hall. She left a large fortune. $21.000. It was not without a fight that Mr. Carpenter, Aston Knight, Ridgway Knight, Mr. Morgan erected in 1899 chimes in Trinity Church, in Lenox, to her memory. On Parker, Jules Pages, W. O. Vreeland, February 17, 1899, his fifty-eighth birthday, Elizabeth Bouguereau, Mildred Copeland, Mr. Morgan married, in Trinity Church, was raised to $1,000 by Miss Belle de Costa Clara Kreschinger, Elizabeth Harwood and Lenox, Miss Sarah E. Mifflin, of Pittsfield. The Rev. Harold Arrowsmith performed

Mr. Morgan leaves two sons, Julius Spener Morgan and George Dennison Morgan; daughter, Miss Caroline L. Morgan, and ordered by the state, which will erect a a brother, the Rev. John B. Morgan, of Paris. Mr. Morgan was a member of the Union, Down Town, Church, Metropolitan, Century, Ardsley and Lenox clubs and was a vestryman of Trinity Church, in Lenox. His estate in Lenox was notable for its horticultural beauty. He was an extensive grower of rare flowers and was particularly fond of carnations, which he grew in abundance.

The funeral will be held in Trinity Church, Lenox, probably on Monday, and Chicago, April 28.-The fifth Helen the body will be taken to Hartford, Conn., for burial.

TIMOTHY W. DAVENPORT. Timothy W. Davenport, father of Homer

Davenport, the cartoonist, died at South Pasadena, Cal., yesterday from heart disease. He was born at Spencertown, N. Y., agreements be made whereby Canada and eighty-five years ago, but spent most of daughter, who is Mrs. Orin Ringshaw.

EDWARD W. MEALEY. Hagerstown, Md., April 28.-Edward W.

capitalist and United States Consul at cial embassy from the United States to the coronation of King George. This is the munich during the first Cleveland administration, died here to-day from heart discesse.

MRS. HENRY L. BUNCE. [By Telegraph to The Tribune.]

Hartford, Conn., April 28.-Mrs. Eliza Walton (Craig) Bunce, member of a well known New York family, and wife of Henry L. Bunce, president of the United States Bank, died here to-day. She had been an invalid for eight years. She was born on May 13, 1848, the daughter of the late James R. and Margaret Walton Craig, and married Mr. Bunce in December, 1872. Three children survive her. The funeral

Grand Rapids, Mich., April 28.-Henry W. arey, of East Lake, former regent of the hed to-day at the Herkimer Hotel as a result of heart disease.

Henry Westonrae Carey was born in New York City in 1850, and received his education in the public schools and at the College of the City of New York. In early life he was in the brokerage business here and West. Going to Michigan, he stopped at Manistee and entered the employ of R. G. extended engageme--

Peters, a dealer in lumber. After several promotions he was made secretary of the Blanck, May E. B. Bunce, Eliza W. R. G. Peters Saft and Lumber Company. Mr. Carey was formerly a member of the er an illness of less than a week, the William St. Elmo Smith, the first retired with the rank of captain of the vetognition as early as 1901, when he was elected a regent of the University of Michigan. In this position he did splendid work for the university.

OBITUARY NOTES.

MRS. ELIZABETH R. M'MILLAN STANTON, widow of John Stanton, of this city, died at her house, No. 419 West 23d street, on Thursday. Mrs. Stanton was born in New York City seventy-five years ago: She was married in 1857 to John Stanton, a rich copper mining operator, who died five years ago. She was a member of the Daughters of the American Revolution, by Marie 3. Warren. The concluding mindber in the street, and even went so far as the street, and even went so far as held at 4:30 o'clock to-morrow

> ALBERT SAULPAUGH, proprietor of the new Saulpaugh Hotel, at Catskill, N. Y., and well known throughout the Hudson Valley, died last night at Catskill, after a

> EX-ASSEMBLYMAN W. E. WHEELER died at Portville, N. Y., yesterday, from an affection of the heart. He was one of the vice-president of that institution at the time of his death. He was sixty-seven

ROBERT J. ARUNDELL, a well known Philadelphia lawyer, died in that city yes terday. He was seventy-two years old.

DINNER TO KING AND QUEEN

Earl and Countess of Granada Hosts of British Sovereigns.

London, April 28.-King George and Queen Mary dined to-night at Forbes House with the Earl and Countess of Granard. The Countess of Granard was Miss Beatrice Mills, of New York.

EX-SENATOR KITTREDGE WORSE. Hot Springs, Ark., April 28.-Reports to day from the bedside of ex-United States Senator A. B. Kittredge, of South Dakota who is critically ill in this city, are that his condition is worse. Little hope is entertained for his recovery.

THEATRICAL NOTES. Miss Christle MacDonald, who has been singing in "The Spring Maid" at the Liberty Theatre for nearly two hundred performances, will close her season on June 10 and go to Europe for a rest with friends in Switzerland. She will resume her engagement at the Liberty early in August. Holbrook Blinn, Charles Richman and

William Courtenay, three of the players in William A. Brady's revival of "The Lights o' London," which opens at the Lyric Theatre on Monday night, are using the big tank at the Hippodrome daily in their his life on the Pacific Coast. He leaves a rehearsals of the sensational rescue scene

Having considered more than fifty promi nent actresses for the title character in a second company of "Everywoman," which New York, is among those whom the Presi- Mealey, sixty-five years old, a millionaire he will send on tour next season, Henry W. Savage has decided to visit several stock companies in the hope of finding what he considers the ideal type for the part.

> their services to the Lambs ladies' gambol. at The New Theatre, on Friday afternoon, May 12, was completed yesterday.

> Mrs. Clarence H. Mackay sent her check for $100 yesterday to the Professiona Woman's League for a box at the testimonial at the Hudson Theatre, on Tuesday, May 9. The sale of seats will open at the box office on Monday.

The 100th performance of Lew Fields in 'The Hen Pecks' will take place at the Broadway Theatre on Tuesday evening. Mabel Hite and "A Certain Party" at Wallack's Theatre are to be magnetic points of a number of specially organized theatre parties next week. As a result University of Michigan, was found dead in Monday is advertised as authors' night, Tuesday as baseball night, Wednesday as Sheepshead Bay night, Thursday as college night and Friday as police night.

Mrs. Frances Hodgson Burnett's new play, "Judy O'Hara," a romantic comedy drama in four acts, is being rehearsed daily by Aphie James (Mrs. Louis James) and her company at the Astor Theatre. business. In 1881 he left New York for the DIED.

Hill, Rebecca D. Kimball, Mary S. Livingston, Susan B. Morgan, George H. Scott, Arthur. Stanton, Elizabeth R. McM.

NCK—Suldenly, in Hackensack, N. J., 1911, May E. Brewster, beloved womas J. Blanck, 2d. Funeral service e residence. No. 53 Clinton Place, Hek. on Saturday, April 29, at 3 p. m. iphia papers please copy.

BUNCE—At Hartford, Conn., April 2 Walton wife of Henry L. Bunce and of the late James R. Craig, of Sch N. Y., in her 63d year. Funeral Mon I, at 2:30 p. m. Kindly omit flowers.

CARRINGTON—On Wednesday, April 26, 1911, Dora Allen, wife of William T. Carrington. Funeral service at her late residence, No. 540 Park ave., on Monday afternoon, May 1, at 3 o'clock.

DALY — On Wednesday morning, April 28, 1911, at her residence, No. 551 Willoughby ave. Brooklyn, Mary Daly, widow of thate Patrick Daly. Interment at Holy Cross

DOBIE—Suddenly, on Wednesday, April 26, 161, Robert B. Dobie, of No. 219 South 4th st. Brooklyn, aged 65 years. Funeral ser-vices on Sunday at 1:30 p. m., at Christ Clurch, Bedford ave. and Division ave. In-terment Cypress Hills Cemetery.

FELLHEIMER-On Wednesday, April 26, 1911, August Fellheimer, aged 69 years. Funeral private. FEY—On Thursday, April 27, 1911, Frederick Fey. in his 39th year. Funeral services at his late home, 538 52d st., Brooklyn, at 8 p. m. Saturday, April 29, 1911. Interment. Sunday, April 30, 1911, 2 p. m., Greenwood Cemetery.

ORDON—Suddenly, on Friday, April 28, 1911. Jane Gordon, aged 57 years. Funeral services at her late residence, No. 49 Duffield st., Brooklyn, on Sunday, April 30, at GORHAM—On Wednesday, April 26, 1911, George Raymond Gorham, aged 75 years. Funeral services at his late residence, Nor-ton, Conn., on Saturday, April 29, at 2:30 p. m. Carriages awaiting the arrival of 12:40 p. m. train from Grand Central Sta-tion at the Stamford, Conn., station.

GRENNELL.—Suddenly, on the 26th inst, John C. Grennell, in his 57th year, husband of Emma L. Grennell. Funeral at All Saints' Church, 7th ave. and 7th st., Brook-lyn, on Saturday, April 29, at 2 p. m. HILL—Thursday, April 27, 1911, Rebecca D., Hill, daughter of the late Richard and Re-becca Dodgshun Hill. Funeral service at hes-late residence. No. 228 Jefferson ave. Brook-lyn, this (Saturday) evening at 8 o'clock.

KIMBALL-On Friday, April 28, 1911, Mary & Kimball, widow of T. C. Kimball. Funeral, services at her late residence, 2020 Broadway. Saturday, April 29, at 1 p. m.

LIVINGSTON—At No. 20 Washington Square, on April 27, 1911, Suean Bard, widow of Herman T. Livingston and daughter of the late Archibaid Rogers, in the 76th year of her age, Funeral services at her late residence on Saturaday, April 29, at 3:30. Interment at convenience of the family.

MORGAN—At Lenox, Mass., on April 28, George Hale Morgan, son of the late George Denison Morgan, in his 72d year. Notice of funeral hereafter.

SCOTT - Arthur Scott, aged 23 years. Funeral at The Funeral Church, Nos. 241 and 245 West 23d st. (Frank E. Campbell Building). STANTON—On Thursday, April 27, after a briefillness. Elizabeth Remaine McMillan, widow of John Stanton. Funeral service at her late residence, No. 419 West 234 st., this Sunday afternoon, at 4:30 o'clock. Interment private.

NEW YORK CITY CHAPTER, Daughters of the American Revolution, announce with ut-most sorrow the death of its highly valued, member, Mrs. John Stanton. Funeral services at her late residence. No. 419 West 23d st., Sunday, April 30, 4:30 p. m. Mrs. M. C., MURRAY HYDE, Rec. Sec. Mrs. DONALD M LEAN, Hon. Pres. Gen. Regent.

SWIFT-On April 28, at the residence of his son-in-law, Professor Charles Burton Gullek, No. 39 Fayerweather st., Cambridge, Mass., Humphrey Hathaway Swift, in his 92d year.

TAYLOR—On Friday, April 28, of pneumonia, Samuel Roberts Taylor, son of the late William and Adeline Roberts Taylor, in his 624 year. Funeral at the residence of Mrs. George S. Hamilin, No. 750 St. Nicholas ave. New York City, on Sunday, April 30, at 5 o'clock p. m. Interment at Middletown, N. Y. WHITE-Entered into life eternal April 27, at her late residence, No. 365 West 23d st., Jane White, daughter of the late Charles and Jane White. Funeral services will be held at the Church of the Holy Communion. Sixth ave. and 20th st., on Saturday, April 29, at 2 p. m. It is kindly asked that no flowers be sent. CEMETERIES.

THE WOODLAWN CEMETERY is readily accessible by Harlem train from Grand Central Station, Webster and Jerome avenue trolley and by carriage, Lots $150 up. Telephone 4855 Gramercy for Book of Views or representative.

Office, 20 East 23d St., New York City. UNDERTAKERS.

FRANK E. CAMPBELL, 241-3 West 23d St. Chapels, Private Rooms, Private Ambulances. Tel. 1324 Chelsca. SPECIAL NOTICES.

OFFICES. MAIN OFFICE-No. 154 Nassau stree WALL STREET OFFICE-No. 15

street.
UPTOWN OFFICE-No. 1364 Broadway, or any American District Telegraph Office.

HARLEM OFFICES-No. 157 East 125th street,
No. 263 West 125th street, and No. 219 West

No. 263 West 125th street, and No. 219 West 125th street.

WASHINGTON BUREAU—Westory Building.